I. Call to Order at 6:35 p.m.

II. Discussions:

- 1) Web Cam for 64th and McKinley: Jesse reported on the ECAT meeting. Fred Brookshire will get figures for two cameras expected to cost $5,000. One will be located on 96th Street.
- 2) Habitat Housing Development: Will present at March 21 meeting.
- 3) Paint Tacoma Beautiful: Will present at March 21 meeting
- 4) Safe Streets 101- Will be combined with the April general meeting on gangs and safety issues

III. Old Business

- 1) NUSA: William Weatherby moved to spend a total of $1500 to send two representatives to NUSA this year in Sacramento. John Hargroves seconded. The executive recommendation passed and will be presented to the full council on March 21st
- 2) Stewart Heights Reader Board: John Hargroves will follow up with Metro Parks to see when the reader board will be functioning.
- 3) Boze Elementary School Crosswalk Lights: Curtis Kingsolver will advise Elton Gatewood on the project and he will report back to the group
- 4) Traffic Light on 64th and McKinley: Consensus that project should continue to be a priority.
- 5) 38th and McKinley Business Development: ENACT will continue to solicit suggestions for businesses that the neighborhood desires.
- 6) 32nd and Portland Light: There continues to be a traffic problem at this intersection. The recommendation is to continue discussions with Puyallup Tribal representatives and to request a liaison to attend ENACT meetings.

IV. New Business:

- 1) Across The Fence: John Hargroves will speak on Public Transportation on this month's segment. He rides Pierce Transit on a regular basis and stated that buses have greatly improved.
- 2) April City of Tacoma Town Hall Meeting: The City of Tacoma will convene a Town Hall meeting at Stewart Heights Middle School on April 12th at 6:00 p.m. Jesse and John will meet with Council member Talbert to discuss the agenda.
- 3) Spanish Law Enforcement Tips Card: Centro Latino has worked with Tacoma Police Department to create a pocket card with tips on what to do if stopped by police. It will be printed by MultiCare. Additional translations in other languages will be done in the future. It was suggested that they be available at the April Town Hall meeting.

VI. Good of the Order-No announcements were made.
